

AT&T Unlimited Settlement Claim Form

To file a claim for a payment, you must complete and file this Claim Form. You can either:

(1) File Online. File online at www.ATTUnlimitedDataSettlement.com; or

(2) File by Mail: Fill out, sign, and return this form to: AT&T Unlimited Data Settlement, c/o Settlement Administrator, 1650 Arch Street, Suite 2210, Philadelphia, PA 19103.

If your Personal ID # starts with a “B” you must file a claim in order to receive a settlement payment.

If your Personal ID # starts with a “C” you must file a claim in order to receive the full payment amount you qualify for.

If your Personal ID # starts with an “A” you do not need to file a claim to receive the full payment amount you qualify for.

You can find your Personal ID # on the front or top of the settlement notice you received. If you did not receive an email or postcard notice or you no longer have the notice, you can file a claim without entering a Personal ID # and the Settlement Administrator will verify your claim, or you can email the Settlement Administrator at: Info@ATTUnlimitedDataSettlement.com to get your Personal ID #.

IMPORTANT: THE DEADLINE TO FILE A CLAIM IS AUGUST 13, 2021.

Step 1: Provide Your Contact Information

Personal ID #

(You can find this number on the front or top of the settlement notice you received. If you no longer have the notice, and need your Personal ID #, email the Settlement Administrator at: Info@ATTUnlimitedDataSettlement.com.)

Your Name _____

Street Address _____

City _____ State _____ ZIP _____

Email Address: _____

Step 2: Confirm That You Had Your Data Speed Slowed

Check the box below to confirm that, to the best of your recollection, you had your AT&T data speed slowed at least once in 2014 or later.

To the best of my recollection, I experienced slowed data speed for my AT&T unlimited wireless service at least once in 2014 or later. (check box)

Step 3: Sign the Form

Your Signature

Date