DECLARATION OF STEVEN WEISBROT ON BEHALF OF ANGEION GROUP, LLC IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

I, Steven Weisbrot, hereby declare under penalty of perjury pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 that the following is true and correct:

1. I am the President and Chief Executive Officer at the class action notice and claims administration firm Angeion Group, LLC (“Angeion”). I am fully familiar with the facts contained herein based upon my personal knowledge.
2. My credentials were previously reported to this Court in my prior declaration that was filed in support of the Debtors’ Motion for Preliminarily Approving the Settlement (Docket No. 5836) (“Original Declaration”).
3. The purpose of this declaration is to provide the Court with a summary of the work Angeion performed related to the Notice Program as outlined in my Original Declaration and to provide as summary of the claims filing statistics to date.

SETTLEMENT CLASS LIST

¹ The last four digits of the tax identification number of Reorganized Debtor Rental Car Intermediate Holdings, LLC (“RCIH”) are 2549. The location of the Reorganized Debtors’ service address is 8501 Williams Road, Estero, FL 33928. On September 28, 2021, the Court entered a final decree closing each of the chapter 11 cases for The Hertz Corporation and its affiliated reorganized debtors (the “Reorganized Debtors”) other than RCIH’s chapter 11 case. Commencing on September 28, 2021, all motions, notices and other pleadings relating to any of the Reorganized Debtors shall be filed in RCIH’s chapter 11 case, Case No. 20-11247 (MFW).

4. On July 12, 2021, Class Counsel provided Angeion with two Microsoft Excel spreadsheets containing where available, names, mailing addresses, email addresses, rental data, and other pertinent information for Class Members. One spreadsheet contained the rental information from rentals purchased through Hertz and the other contained the rental information from rentals purchased through Dollar/Thrifty.

5. On September 22, 2021, Class Counsel provided Angeion with revised spreadsheets for the Hertz rental class which included data on rental period dates which were missing from the initial file.

6. In summary, the revised Hertz spreadsheets contained 534,138 records and the Dollar/Thrifty spreadsheet contained 151,128 records.

7. Angeion removed international records from the data and wherever possible combined records where it was identified a Class Member had more than 1 rental record in the data. Angeion combined the spreadsheets to create the Class List which consisted of 531,219 unique records.

8. Angeion caused a reverse look-up search to be performed on the 539,218 records to acquire postal addresses and email addresses for Settlement Class Members where the spreadsheets did not contain such data, and/or to update information in the spreadsheets. The results of the look-up were incorporated into the Class List. Combining information in the spreadsheets with information from the reverse lookup, Angeion was able to obtain 230,065 valid email addresses and 396,979 postal addresses pertaining to the Settlement Class Members.²

DIRECT NOTICE

Email Notices

9. On October 6, 2021, Angeion caused the Email Notice to be sent via email to the 230,065 records which had a valid email address. Of the 230,065 emails sent, 42,215 emails could not be delivered. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a copy of the Email Notice.

² These numbers add up to more than the total number of unique Settlement Class Members because in some cases, Angeion was able to obtain both an email address and a postal address for the same individual. Angeion was able to obtain either an email address or a postal address for approximately 80% of the individuals on the Class List.

10. On October 27, 2021, Angeion caused a reminder Email Notice to be sent to 184,271 class members who had the initial Email Notice successfully delivered and had not previously submitted a claim.

11. On November 8, 2021, it was brought to Angeion's attention that there was a typographical error in the Email Notice, that had the settlement website incorrectly typed as www.mexicorentalcarsettlement.com. This error was typographical only, and if the link was clicked it was correctly hyperlinked to the Settlement Website. To err on the side of caution, Angeion also purchased the incorrect URL and had it directed to the Settlement Website so if any class members typed the incorrect URL into a search engine, they would be redirected to the Settlement Website.

12. Angeion also caused an Updated Email Notice correcting the typographical error to be sent to 177,830 class members who had the initial Email Notice successfully delivered and had not previously submitted a claim on September 9, 2021. Attached hereto as Exhibit B is a copy of the Updated Email Notice.

Mailed Notices

13. Angeion processed the 396,979 mailing addresses through the United States Postal Service ("USPS") National Change of Address ("NCOA") database to identify updated address information for individuals and businesses who have moved in the last four years and filed a change of address card with the USPS. The NCOA results provided 16,007 updated addresses for Settlement Class Members. Angeion updated the Class List with these updated addresses.

14. Commencing on October 18, 2021, Angeion caused the Settlement Double Postcard Notice ("Notice") to be mailed to all 396,979 Class members with a mailing address via United States Postal Service ("USPS") first class mail. Attached hereto as Exhibit C is a copy of the Notice.

15. As of November 18, 2021, Angeion has received 4,660 Notices returned as undeliverable from the USPS with a forwarding address. The Class list database was updated with these updated addresses and Notices were re-mail to these 4,660 records.

16. As of November 18, 2021, 53,734 Notices were returned as undeliverable by the USPS without a forwarding address. Angeion conducted address verification searches (“skip traces”) in an attempt to locate updated addresses. Angeion identified 20,288 updated addresses via skip tracing. Angeion updated its database with these addresses and re-mailed a Notice to the 20,288 records.

ONLINE ADVERTISING NOTICE

17. In addition to providing the email and postal notice discussed above, Angeion also provided notice to Class Members using internet advertising and social media.

18. Angeion utilized a form of internet advertising known as Programmatic Display Advertising to provide notice of the litigation to Class Members. Programmatic Display Advertising is a trusted method specifically utilized to reach a defined target audience where an algorithm identifies and examines demographic profiles and uses advanced technology to place advertisements on the websites where members of the audience are most likely to visit. In this case the target audience was potential Class Members, i.e. renters through Dollar, Thrifty and Hertz.

19. On October 29, 2021, Angeion caused the digital notice campaign to commence. The digital banner ads are scheduled to run until the November 23, 2021 deadlines on both desktop and mobile devices to reach the most qualified audience on websites where Class Members were likely to shop and browse specifically targeting Hertz users. Class Members can click on the ads to be transferred directly to the Settlement Website. Copies of the internet banner ads used in this campaign are attached hereto as Exhibit D.

20. In addition to the digital banner ad campaign, on October 29, 2021, Angeion also caused a separate social media digital campaign to commence on Facebook & Instagram. The social media campaign engages with the audience via a mix of news feed and story units to optimize performance via the Facebook and Instagram desktop sites, mobile sites and mobile apps. First party data was also used to directly target these ads to individuals on the Class List. Copies of the Facebook ads campaign are attached hereto as Exhibit E.

21. Through November 18, 2021, the digital media program has served 4,701,951 impressions from the digital banner ads and 8,249,944 impressions from the social media ads. The digital media program is scheduled to end on November 23, 2021 and is anticipated to serve a total of 4,776,951 impressions from the digital banner ads and 8,256,716 impressions from the social media ads.³

SETTLEMENT WEBSITE

22. Angeion established the following case-specific website: www.mexicocarrentalsettlement.com (“Settlement Website”), which went live on October 6, 2021. The Settlement Website provides both summary and detailed information about the Settlement, including the information in and a link to the Long- Form Notice (attached here to as Exhibit F), important dates and deadline, a “Frequently Asked Questions” page, and a page with links to relevant Court documents, including the Settlement Agreement, Motion for Preliminary Approval, Preliminary Approval Order, Claim Form (attached hereto as Exhibit G) and opt-out form (attached here to as Exhibit H). The Settlement Website also included a link to the Long-Form Notice translated into Spanish (attached hereto as Exhibit I). The Settlement Website allows Class Members to file a claim and upload supporting documentation via the site. The Settlement Website also allows Class Members to opt-out from the Settlement by filling out and signing an Opt-out form. The Settlement Website also contains a “Contact Us” page which provides Class Members additional ways to contact Angeion, such as by mail or email or phone, by which they may update their addresses or submit additional questions regarding the Settlement.

23. As of November 18, 2021, the Settlement Website has had 41,831 unique visitors and 100,352 page views.

TOLL-FREE HOTLINE

24. On October 6, 2021, Angeion established the following toll-free hotline devoted to this case to further apprise Class Members of their rights and options in the Settlement: 1-855-545-

0882. The toll-free hotline utilizes an interactive voice response (“IVR”) system to provide Class Members with responses to frequently asked questions and provides essential information regarding the Settlement. Class Members may also leave a message to ask additional questions, provide updated address information or request a claim form to be mailed to them. The hotline is accessible 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. As on November 18, 2021, the toll-free hotline has received 2,269 calls totaling 9,640 minutes.

CLAIM FORM SUBMISSIONS

25. The deadline for Class Members to submit a claim is November 23, 2021. As of November 18, 2021, Angeion has received a total of 42,790 Claim Form submissions (22,365 online submissions and 20,425 submissions by mail). Of the 42,790 Claims Forms submitted 40,603 were submitted with a Notice ID (either returned the double postcard claim or submitted an online claim using their Notice ID and confirmation code).

26. The 22,365 online Claim Forms submitted were submitted for a total of 261,113 Rental Days and an associated dollar amount of $6,788,938.00. Claim Forms are still being received, processed and validated, and this amount is expected to change.

REQUESTS FOR EXCLUSION AND OBJECTIONS

27. The deadline to submit a request for exclusion from the Settlement or to object to the Settlement is November 23, 2021. As of November 19, 2021, Angeion has not received any objections to the Settlement from Class Members. As of November 19, 2021, Angeion has received 68 requests for exclusion. A table summarizing the exclusion requests is attached here to as Exhibit J.

ESTIMATED NOTICE AND ADMINISTRATION COSTS

28. Through November 18, 2021, Angeion has incurred $275,737.79 in costs for noticing and administration work performed. These costs were paid by Class Counsel. Angeion estimates that it will cost an approximately $180,130 in additional costs to complete the administration of the settlement.

UPDATED INFORMATION

29. Angeion will provide the Court with a subsequent declaration updating the number of claims, objections and exclusions (along with the names of any persons excluding themselves) after the deadline for such actions has passed. Angeion reserves the right to further update its costs of administration prior to finalizing the calculation of the pro-rata distributions to Class Members. After all distributions are made, Angeion will pay residual funds to the Court-approved cy pres recipient.

CONCLUSION

30. It is my opinion that the Notice Program described herein met the requirements of Rule 23 and due process requirements, provided the best notice that was practicable under the circumstances, and incorporated contemporary media and best practices to alert and engage the participation of Class Members in the proposed Settlement.

I hereby declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the foregoing is true and correct.

Subject: Notice of Class Action and Proposed Settlement

Notice ID: [REDACTED]

Confirmation Code: [REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

Why Am I Receiving This Notice?

You are receiving this notice because, according to our records, you previously reserved online and rented a Hertz, Dollar, or Thrifty vehicle that you picked up in Mexico. If you file a claim, and the settlement is approved, you will receive a refund of approximately $26 for each day of your Mexican car rentals during the class period. Your estimated refund will be $104.00.

What's this about?

In May 2020, while the lawsuit was pending, Hertz DTAG filed a petition for relief in Delaware under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. To avoid the costs and risks of continued litigation, the Parties have agreed to a settlement. The settlement allows the Class a general unsecured nonpriority claim against The Hertz Corporation in the aggregate amount of $20,000,000.

A class action lawsuit was brought against Hotwire, Inc. ("Hotwire"), The Hertz Corporation ("Hertz"), and Dollar Thrifty Automotive Group ("DTAG"). (Hertz and DTAG are referred to collectively as "Hertz DTAG"). The lawsuit was brought by a consumer who rented a Thrifty brand vehicle in Mexico. The lawsuit alleges that Hotwire and Hertz DTAG advertised a low daily rate for Mexican rental cars, but then charged consumers a higher price at the rental counter. The lawsuit claims that the higher prices resulted from (1) previously undisclosed and purportedly mandatory insurance coverage, and (2) converting the reserved U.S. rental rate into Mexican Pesos at an inflated exchange rate. The Class is defined as "all persons who, in the U.S. reserved online and rented a Hertz, Dollar, or Thrifty rental car with pick up in Mexico between May 24, 2009 and December 31, 2018."

What can I receive?

Under the settlement, each Class member who files a claim will receive a refund of approximately $26 per day for his or her completed Hertz, Dollar or Thrifty car rental in Mexico between May 24, 2009 and December 31, 2018 (the “Class Period”). The claim must be verified by rental records produced by Hertz DTAG and its Mexican licensees during the course of the litigation. If fewer claims are submitted than expected, the refunded amount for each day’s rental may be more than $26. If more claims are submitted than expected, the refunded amount for each day’s rental may be less than $26.

How do I make a claim?

To receive your payment, you must complete a claim form, which is available at the settlement website. You can complete the form online, or you can print it, fill it out, and mail it to the address shown on the form. Claim forms must be received (not just postmarked) by November 23, 2021. You must complete and submit the claim form under penalty of perjury.

What are my other options?

You can exclude yourself from the Class to retain any rights you may have to bring a separate lawsuit against Hotwire or Hertz DTAG. (be advised, however, that many rights to sue against Hertz DTAG and its affiliates were released automatically by operation of bankruptcy law, and you will not be able to file such lawsuits even if you exclude yourself from the Class.) Those who do not exclude themselves will be deemed to have consented to the Court’s jurisdiction and authority to enter a final order upon the settlement. If you exclude yourself from the Class, you cannot file a claim for money in this settlement nor can you object to this settlement.

Alternatively, you can object to any aspect of the settlement, the amount of attorneys’ fees, costs, or the payment to the Plaintiff by filing a written objection. If the Court denies approval of the settlement, no settlement payments will be sent out, and the bankruptcy court will decide the value of the claim submitted by the class and how the amounts awarded to the class, if any, are distributed.

To exclude yourself from or object to the settlement, you must follow the instructions available at the settlement website. You must ensure that your exclusion request or objection is received, not just postmarked, by November 23, 2021.

What will happen next?

The Court will hold a hearing on December 14, 2021 at 10:30 a.m. (ET) to consider whether to approve the settlement. If the settlement is approved, the attorneys for Plaintiff will ask the Court for an award of (1) their out-of-pocket expenses, (2) up to $8.6 million in attorneys' fees and bankruptcy-related financial advisor fees, and (3) $75,000 in incentive awards, all of which shall be paid out of the $20 million to be distributed to the Class.

Note that this hearing date may change without further notice to you. Consult the settlement website at www.mexicorentalcarsettlement.com or the Court docket at <https://restructuring.primeclerk.com/hertz> for updated information on the hearing date and time.

You can receive an award under a class action settlement if you file a claim by November 23, 2021 at www.mexicocarrentalsettlement.com. Please read below.

A proposed class action settlement has been reached with The Hertz Corporation and Dollar Thrifty Automotive Group (collectively, "Hertz DTAG"). It affects all persons who, in the U.S., reserved online and rented a Hertz, Dollar, or Thrifty rental car with pick up in Mexico between May 24, 2009 and December 31, 2018 (the "Class"). The Court authorized this notice.

The Lawsuit alleges that Hertz DTAG and Hotwire, Inc. ("Defendants") advertised the cost of renting a car in Mexico without advising customers of alleged mandatory insurance for Mexico-based rentals. The lawsuit also alleged that customers were charged an inflated exchange rate when converting U.S. dollars to the Mexican peso. Defendants deny all allegations and claims. The Court has not decided the Lawsuit, but the parties have agreed to a class settlement to resolve the dispute.

You received this notice because Hertz DTAG's rental records reflect that you may be a member of the Class.

Under the settlement, each Class member who submits a claim form for a valid claim will receive a refund of approximately $26 per day for his or her completed Hertz, Dollar or Thrifty car rental in Mexico between May 24, 2009 and December 31, 2018 (the "Class Period"). The claim must be verified by rental records produced by Hertz DTAG and their Mexican licensees during the course of the litigation. If fewer claims are submitted than expected, the refunded amount for each day's rental may be more than $26. If more claims are submitted than expected, the refunded amount for each day's rental may be less than $26.

The claim form must be received by the Claims Administrator no later than November 23, 2021. To access and print a claim form or to submit a claim form online, please visit the settlement website, www.mexicocarrentalsettlement.com. The website also contains a more detailed notice of the terms of the settlement, answers to frequently asked questions, and other information about the Lawsuit. If you cannot access the website, you can obtain the claim form and detailed notice by contacting the Claim Administrator at the address or phone number on the reverse side of this card.

If the settlement is approved by the Court, any legal claims you have against Defendants that were or could have been raised in the Lawsuit related to the allegations in the Lawsuit will be released. If you wish, you may opt out of the settlement. Excluding yourself from the settlement will not permit you to retain claims that were released automatically by operation of bankruptcy law, such as claims against Hertz DTAG. Alternatively, you have the right to object to the settlement. Your opt-out request or objection must be received by November 23, 2021. For details on how to opt-out or object, visit the settlement website at www.mexicocarrentalsettlement.com.

The Court will hold a final approval hearing on December 14, 2021 at 10:30 a.m. EST to consider whether to approve the settlement. Class Counsel will ask the Court to award them $8,739,661.73 in attorney's fees, bankruptcy-related financial advisor fees, costs and expenses, and $75,000 as an incentive to the customer who started the Lawsuit. You may appear at the hearing, but you do not have to.

This notice may affect your rights. Please read it carefully.

A court has authorized this notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

- This notice concerns a bankruptcy proceeding involving the companies the Hertz Corporation and Dollar Thrifty Automotive Group, Inc. (collectively “Hertz DTAG”), which offered rental cars for pick up in Mexico.
- This class action settlement will resolve a lawsuit against Hertz DTAG and will affect all persons who, in the U.S., reserved online and rented a Hertz, Dollar, or Thrifty rental car with pick up in Mexico between May 24, 2009 and December 31, 2018 (the “Class”).
- In 2013, litigation was filed against Hertz DTAG and Hotwire, Inc. (“Hotwire”) on behalf of the Class. The lawsuit alleged that Hertz DTAG advertised the cost of renting a car in Mexico without advising customers of alleged mandatory insurance for Mexico-based rentals. The lawsuit also alleged that customers were charged an inflated exchange rate when converting U.S. dollars to the Mexican peso. Hertz DTAG denies the allegations and denies all liability.
- After Hertz DTAG filed for bankruptcy on May 22, 2020, the purchaser who started and pursued the lawsuit (“Plaintiff”) filed a claim in the bankruptcy case on behalf of a purported class.
- An agreement has been reached between the Plaintiff and Hertz DTAG. It allows a general unsecured nonpriority claim against The Hertz Corporation in the aggregate amount of $20,000,000 to the Class.
- Each Class member who files a claim will receive a refund of an estimated $26 per day for his or her completed Hertz, Dollar or Thrifty car rental in Mexico between May 24, 2009 and December 31, 2018 (the “Class Period”). The claim must be verified by rental records produced by Hertz DTAG and its Mexican licensees during the course of the litigation. If fewer claims are submitted than expected, the refunded amount for each day’s rental may be more than $26. If more claims are submitted than expected, the refunded amount for each day’s rental may be less than $26.
- The Plaintiff and his lawyers who brought the lawsuit will ask the Court to reimburse them for their out-of-pocket expenses, attorneys’ fees and bankruptcy-related financial advisor fees of approximately $8,739,661.73, and $75,000 in incentive awards. These amounts will be paid out of the $20 million to be distributed to the Class.
- Your legal rights are affected whether you act or don’t act. Read this notice carefully.

How Do I Know If I Am Affected By The Settlement?

This case involves Hertz, Dollar, and Thrifty rental vehicles that were picked up in Mexico after having been reserved in the U.S. through any online reservation platform.

The Court has conditionally certified the following Class: “All persons in the United States who reserved online and rented a Hertz, Dollar, or Thrifty rental car with pick up in Mexico between May 24, 2009 and December 31, 2018.”

The following are not members of the Class: (1) the Honorable Leonard Stark, the Honorable Mary Walrath, the Honorable Samuel Conti, Anthony Piazza or Stephanie Chow; (2) any member of their immediate families; (3) any government entity, (4) The Hertz Corporation and its affiliated debtors: Hertz Global Holdings, Inc., Thrifty Rent-A-Car System, LLC, Thrifty, LLC, Dollar Thrifty Automotive Group, Inc., Firefly Rent A Car LLC, CMGC Canada Acquisition ULC, Hertz Aircraft, LLC, Dollar Rent A Car, Inc., Dollar Thrifty Automotive Group Canada Inc., Donlen Corporation, Donlen FSHCO Company, Hertz Canada Limited, Donlen Mobility Solutions, Inc., DTG Canada Corp., DTG Operations, Inc., Hertz Car Sales LLC, DTG Supply, LLC, Hertz Global Services Corporation, Hertz Local Edition Corp., Hertz Local Edition Transporting, Inc., Donlen Fleet Leasing Ltd., Hertz System, Inc., Smartz Vehicle Rental Corporation, Thrifty Car Sales, Inc., Hertz Technologies, Inc., TRAC Asia Pacific, Inc., Hertz Transporting, Inc., Rental Car Group Company, LLC, & Rental Car Intermediate Holdings, LLC. (collectively, the “Reorganized Debtors”); (5) any entity in which the Reorganized Debtors have a controlling interest; (6) any of the Reorganized Debtors’ subsidiaries, parents, affiliates, officers, directors, employees, legal representatives, heirs, successors, or assigns; (7) counsel for the parties; and (8) any persons who timely opt-out of the Class.

What Is The Case About?

In May 2013, Enrico Moretti filed a lawsuit against Hotwire, Inc., The Hertz Corporation and Dollar Thrifty Automotive Group, Inc. alleging that they engaged in false advertising and other unfair practices with respect to Hertz, Dollar, and Thrifty rental vehicles that were reserved online in the U.S. and picked up in Mexico. More specifically, Plaintiff alleges that Hotwire and Hertz DTAG advertised a low daily rate for Mexican rental cars, but then charged consumers a higher price at the rental counter as a result of (1) previously undisclosed and mandatory insurance coverage, and (2) converting the reserved U.S. rental rate into Mexican Pesos at an inflated exchange rate. Plaintiff seeks to represent a class of all similarly situated renters. Hertz DTAG denies that there is any factual or legal basis for the lawsuit and denies liability.

In May 2020, while the lawsuit was pending, Hertz DTAG filed a petition for relief in Delaware under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. Under the current Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization (the “Plan”), which went into effect on June 30, 2021, unsecured creditors will receive payment in full for the amount of their allowed claims.

The Court has not finally determined whether the Class’s claim in the bankruptcy should be allowed; or the proper amounts of that claim.

What Does Plaintiff Seek To Recover?

Plaintiff alleges that Hertz DTAG advertised one low price for Mexican rentals, but charged consumers a higher price at the rental counter as a result of (1) previously undisclosed mandatory insurance coverage, and (2) converting the reserved U.S. rental rate into Mexican Pesos at an inflated exchange rate. Plaintiff contends that, based on his analysis of Hertz DTAG’s rental transaction records, the effect of these actions was that each renter paid an additional $26, on average, for each day of their rental period based on the combination of these two factors. Hertz DTAG disputes Plaintiff’s allegations and denies any fault, wrongdoing, or liability.

Why Is This Case Being Settled?

The Court has not decided in favor of either side in the lawsuit. Neither Plaintiff nor Hertz DTAG have won or lost. Instead, Class Counsel have investigated the facts and applicable law concerning the Plaintiff’s and Class’s claims and Hertz DTAG’s defenses over the course of over 8 years of litigation and determined that the proposed settlement is in the best interests of the Class. Plaintiff’s counsel has reviewed hundreds of thousands of pages of documents and has taken and defended numerous depositions. The Parties have also engaged in several mediations, both pre- and post-bankruptcy. After considering the risks and costs of further litigation, the Parties have each concluded that it is desirable that the Plaintiff's claims be settled and dismissed on the terms of the settlement agreement.

Without a settlement, the Class would first need to convince the Bankruptcy Court to allow this claim to proceed as a Class Action. Hertz DTAG has preliminarily objected on procedural grounds, contending that Class Counsel lacked authority to present claims for each individual consumer, who should have filed a timely individual proof of claim in the Bankruptcy Court. The Class would then need to convince the Court to certify the Class and approve its claim. The Class asserts that the total class claim, if proven, would be approximately $100 million. However, the Court could reject the request for a Class claim or allow the claim on behalf of only a narrower class. Even if the Class was allowed to proceed, the Court could find that Hertz DTAG's reservation process was not misleading, or that mandatory insurance charges and currency conversion rates would not have been material to most consumers' rental choices. And even if it found that the Class had proven misconduct, the Court could find that the amount of the alleged overpayment was much lower than $26 per day.

After taking into account the risks and costs of further litigation, Plaintiff and his counsel believe that the terms and conditions of the settlement are fair, reasonable, adequate, and equitable, and that the settlement is in the best interest of the Class members.

What Is The Settlement?

Prior to this settlement, Hertz DTAG had proposed a Plan to govern how the remaining assets of the bankruptcy estates would be distributed among creditors with valid claims. Under the Plan, Hertz DTAG is required to pay in full all "allowed" claims for unsecured creditors like the proposed Class. However, money will be distributed to creditors only after the Court decides whether each creditor's claim should be allowed and if so, in what amount. To obtain a copy of the Plan, visit <https://restructuring.primeclerk.com/hertz>.

In the settlement, the parties have agreed to value the Class claim at $20 million. This money will be used to pay: (1) the costs of administering the settlement, including providing notice to the Class, (2) attorneys' and advisor fees, costs and incentives awarded by the Court, and (3) valid claims by Class members under this settlement. If there is money left over from the bankruptcy distribution to the Class after payment of these amounts, each valid claim's share will be increased pro rata. If there is not enough money to pay all valid claims, each will be decreased pro rata.

What Can I Get In The Settlement?

If you timely file a valid claim that complies with the instructions on the claim form and in this notice, you will receive a cash payment. You may file a claim for every Hertz, Dollar, or Thrifty rental car that you picked up in Mexico during the class period after having reserved that vehicle in the U.S. through an online reservation system. The amount of the payment to each claimant will depend on (1) the number of days the vehicle was rented, (2) how many other valid claims are filed; and (3) how much of the $20 million settlement remains after payments are made to administer the settlement (including providing this notice) and to Plaintiff and his lawyers and advisers (as approved by the Court). It is expected that each valid claimant will receive $26 per day for each Mexican rental during the Class Period. If you received an individualized notice of this settlement, it sets forth the number of Mexican rental days for which you qualify, as set forth in records obtained in the litigation from Hertz DTAG and its Mexican licensees. The actual amount paid on each claim could be lower than $26 per rental day if there are a large number of claims. It also could be higher than $26 per rental day if there are a small number of claims.

Cash payments will be distributed only if the Court gives final approval to the proposed settlement and only after any appeals are resolved and only after distributions are made in the bankruptcy case. If the Court does not approve the settlement, if the settlement is overturned on appeal, or if the settlement is terminated, no cash payments will be distributed.

How Do I Make A Claim?

To make a claim, you must fill out the claim form available on the settlement website, www.mexicocarrentalsettlement.com. You can also request that a claim form be mailed to you, by calling the Claim Administrator by calling 1-855-545-0882 or writing to Hertz DTAG Settlement Administrator, 1650 Arch St, Ste 2210, Philadelphia, PA 19103. If you received an individualized notice of the settlement and enter your claimant ID number, you must verify your name and the number of your Mexican car rental days which will be pre-populated in the claim form, as well as verify or update your address. If you did not receive a pre-assigned claimant ID number, or you believe that the pre-populated information does not reflect all your qualifying Mexican car rentals during the Class Period, you must provide (1) your full name and address at the time of your rental(s); (2) the month(s) and year(s) of your rental(s), (3) the brand of each rental; (4) the number of rental days for each rental. All claimants also must verify that they ended up paying a daily rate that was higher than quoted to them when they made their original booking. All claims must be submitted under penalty of perjury.

You can submit the claim form online, or you can print it and mail it to the claim administrator at: Hertz DTAG Settlement Administrator, 1650 Arch St, Ste 2210, Philadelphia, PA 19103. If submitted online, claim forms must be submitted no later than November 23, 2021. If mailed, claim forms must be received by the Claim Administrator (not just postmarked), no later than November 23, 2021.

What Do Plaintiff And His Lawyers Get?

To date, Plaintiff's lawyers have not been compensated for any of their work on this case. As part of the settlement, Class Counsel applied to the Court to award them up to 40% of the Class Claim (or a total of $8 million) to pay their Attorneys' Fees, including the attorneys' fees of their local counsel in the Delaware courts. Class Counsel also applied to the Court to award them their out-of-pocket expenses, which are estimated at approximately $140,000.00. In addition, Class Counsel applied to the Court to approve payment of 3% of the Class Claim ($600,000.00) to their bankruptcy financial advisors.

Plaintiff Moretti has not yet received compensation for his time and effort on the case, and the risks he undertook in bringing it. Plaintiff Moretti oversaw the litigation for more than eight years. He has spent more than 100 hours working on this case, for which he has not been paid, and which he would be owed $100,000 at his normal hourly rate which he earns as an economics expert. As part of the settlement, Plaintiff will apply to the Court for an incentive award of $75,000 to compensate him for his time and effort.

Plaintiff and his lawyers will file a motion with the Court on or before November 2, 2021 in support of their applications for attorneys' fees, bankruptcy financial advisor fees, costs, and expenses and payments to the Plaintiff. A copy of that motion will be available on the settlement website. The Court will determine what amounts of fees, costs, expenses, and Class representative payments to award.

What Claims Are Released By The Settlement?

The settlement releases all claims by members of the Class against Hertz DTAG, their affiliates, and Hotwire that relate to the reservation and rental of Hertz, Dollar, or Thrifty vehicles in Mexico. This release includes claims that may not yet be known or suspected. This means that, in exchange for being eligible for the cash benefits as a Class member, you will not be able to sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against the released parties that involves the settled claims. For further information, please see Section 14 of the Settlement Agreement and Release.

Separate from the settlement, claims against Hertz DTAG and certain affiliated entities will be released automatically by operation of bankruptcy law. This will occur whether or not the settlement is approved.

How Do I Exclude Myself From The Settlement And Litigation?

You can exclude yourself from the Class if you wish to retain the right to sue separately for the claims released by the settlement. If you exclude yourself, you cannot file a claim or object to the settlement.

To exclude yourself, you must complete and submit the online form at the settlement website or mail a request to exclude yourself from the settlement to the claim administrator at Hertz DTAG Settlement Administrator, Attn: Exclusion, P.O. Box 58220, Philadelphia, PA 19102. If mailed, the exclusion request must contain your name, address, the words “I wish to be excluded from the Hertz DTAG Mexican Rental Car Class Action Settlement,” and your signature.

If submitted online, exclusion requests must be submitted November 23, 2021. If mailed, exclusion requests must be received by the Claim Administrator (not postmarked) by November 23, 2021.

Excluding yourself from the settlement will not permit you to retain claims that are released automatically by operation of bankruptcy law, such as claims against Hertz DTAG.

Unless you exclude yourself from the settlement, you will be deemed to have consented to the Court’s jurisdiction and authority to enter a final order upon the settlement, and you also will be deemed to have consented to the releases under the Plan.

How Do I Object To The Settlement?

You can ask the Court to deny approval of the settlement, or to reject or reduce the award of attorneys’ fees, advisor fees, costs or incentives to Plaintiff and his lawyers. To do so, you must timely file your objection in Court using the ECF filing system, or you must timely submit an objection to the Claim Administrator, who will then forward it to the Court. In your objection, you can’t ask the Court to order a larger settlement; the Court can only approve or deny the settlement or decide the amount of the award of attorneys’ fees, advisor fees, costs and incentives. If the Court denies approval to the entire settlement, no cash payments will be sent out, and the bankruptcy proceeding will continue as if no settlement had been reached.

You may also appear at the final approval fairness hearing, either in person or through your own attorney. If you appear through your own attorney, you are responsible for paying that attorney. If you want to raise an objection to the settlement at the final approval fairness hearing, you must first submit that objection in writing in accordance with the instructions contained in this notice.

Any objection must include: (1) the case name and number In re The Hertz Corporation, et al., Case No. 20-11218 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del.); (2) your name, address, and telephone number; (3) documents, or testimony under penalty of perjury, sufficient to establish that you are a member of the Class; (4) a statement of your objection(s) and the basis for your objection(s); (5) a statement as to whether you are requesting the opportunity to appear and be heard at the final approval fairness hearing; (6) the name(s) and address(es) of all counsel (if any) who (a) are representing you in making the objection; (b) will appear on your behalf at the final approval fairness hearing; and/or (c) may be entitled to compensation in connection with your objection; (7) the name(s) and address(es) of all persons (if any) who will be called to testify in support of your objection; (8) copies of any papers, briefs, or other documents upon which your objection is based if not already in the court file; (9) a list of any other objections you or your counsel have submitted to any class action in any state or federal court in the United States in the previous five years (or affirmatively stating that no such prior objection has been made); and (10) your signature as objector, in addition to the signature of your attorney, if an attorney is representing you with the objection. Failure to include any element of this information and documentation may be grounds for overruling and rejecting or striking your objection.

All the information listed above must be electronically filed via the Court's ECF system, or delivered to the Claim Administrator by mail, express mail, or personal delivery such that the objection is received by the Claim Administrator (not just postmarked or sent) on or before November 23, 2021. By submitting an objection, you consent to the jurisdiction of the Court, including to any order of the Court to produce documents or provide testimony prior to the final approval fairness hearing.

If you object to the settlement but still want to submit a claim in the event the Court approves the settlement, you must still submit a timely claim according to the instructions described above.

When Will The Court Decide If The Settlement Is Approved?

The Court will hold a hearing on December 14, 2021 at 10:30 a.m. (ET) to consider whether to approve the settlement. The hearing will be held in the courtroom of the Honorable Mary Walrath, United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware, 824 N. Market St, Wilmington, DE 19801. Atención clientes de Hertz, Dollar o Thrifty quiénes reservaron en línea y alquilaron un automóvil para recogerlo en
entre el 24 de mayo de 2009 y el 31 de diciembre de 2018

Este aviso puede afectar sus derechos. Léalo detenidamente.

Un tribunal ha autorizado este aviso. Esta no es una solicitud de un abogado.

- Este aviso se refiere a un procedimiento de bancarrota que involucra a las compañías Hertz Corporation y Dollar Thrifty Automotive Group, Inc. (colectivamente, “Hertz DTAG”), que ofrecieron automóviles de alquiler para recoger en México.
- Este acuerdo de demanda colectiva resolverá una demanda contra Hertz DTAG y afectará a todas las personas que, en los Estados Unidos, hicieron reservas en línea y alquilaron un automóvil con Hertz, Dollar o Thrifty para recogerlo en México entre el 24 de mayo de 2009 y el 31 de diciembre de 2018. (la “Demanda colectiva”).
- En 2013, se presentó un litigio contra Hertz DTAG y Hotwire, Inc. (“Hotwire”) en nombre de la Demanda colectiva. La demanda alegó que Hertz DTAG publicitó el costo de alquilar un automóvil en México sin avisar a los clientes sobre el supuesto seguro obligatorio para alquileres en México. La demanda también alegó que a los clientes se les cobró un tipo de cambio inflado al convertir los dólares estadounidenses al peso mexicano. Hertz DTAG niega las acusaciones y rechaza toda responsabilidad.
- Después de que Hertz DTAG se declarara en bancarrota el 22 de mayo de 2020, el comprador que inició y llevó adelante la demanda (“demandante”) presentó un reclamo en el caso de bancarrota en nombre de una presunta demanda colectiva.
- Se ha llegado a un acuerdo entre el demandante y Hertz DTAG. Permite un reclamo general de no prioridad sin garantía contra The Hertz Corporation por un monto total de 20 000 000 USD para la demanda colectiva.
- Cada miembro de la demanda colectiva que presente un reclamo recibirá un reembolso de aproximadamente 26 USD por día por su alquiler de automóvil completo con Hertz, Dollar o Thrifty en México entre el 24 de mayo de 2009 y el 31 de diciembre de 2018 (el “Período de la demanda colectiva”). El reclamo debe ser verificado por los registros de alquiler producidos por Hertz DTAG y sus licenciatarios mexicanos durante el curso del litigio. Si se presentan menos reclamos de los esperados, el monto reembolsado por el alquiler de cada día puede ser superior a 26 USD. Si se presentan más reclamos de los esperados, el monto reembolsado por el alquiler de cada día puede ser inferior a 26 USD.
- El demandante y sus abogados, quienes entablaron la demanda, solicitarán al tribunal que les reembolsen los gastos de bolsillo, los honorarios de los abogados y los honorarios de los asesores financieros relacionados con la bancarrota por un monto aproximado de 8 739 661,73 USD y 75 000 USD en adjudicaciones de incentivos. Estos montos se pagarán con los 20 millones de USD que se distribuirán a la Demanda colectiva.
- Sus derechos legales se ven afectados tanto si actúa como si no actúa. Lea este aviso detenidamente.

El presente aviso resume el acuerdo propuesto. Para conocer los términos y condiciones precisos, lea el acuerdo de la demanda colectiva disponible en

Alternativamente, puede comunicarse con el administrador de reclamos en Hertz DTAG Settlement Administrator, 1650 Arch St, Ste 2210, Philadelphia, PA 19103 o con el abogado de la Demanda colectiva en Gutride Safier LLP, 100 Pine St, Ste 1250, San Francisco, CA 94111.

¿Cómo sé si el acuerdo me afecta?

Este caso involucra los automóviles de alquiler de Hertz, Dollar y Thrifty que, después de que se los haya reservado en los Estados Unidos a través de una plataforma de reserva en línea, se los recogió en México.

El tribunal ha certificado condicionalmente la siguiente Demanda colectiva: “Todas las personas en los Estados Unidos que reservaron en línea y alquilaron un automóvil con Hertz, Dollar o Thrifty para recogerlo en México entre el 24 de mayo de 2009 y el 31 de diciembre de 2018”.

Los siguientes no son miembros de la Demanda colectiva: (1) el honorable Leonard Stark, la honorable Mary Walrath, el honorable Samuel Conti, Anthony Piazza o Stephanie Chow; (2) cualquier miembro de su familia inmediata; (3) cualquier entidad gubernamental, (4) Hertz Corporation y sus deudores afiliados: Hertz Global Holdings, Inc., Thrifty Rent-A-Car System, LLC, Thrifty, LLC, Dollar Thrifty Automotive Group, Inc., Firefly Rent A Car LLC, CMGC Canada Acquisition ULC, Hertz Aircraft, LLC, Dollar Rent A Car, Inc., Dollar Thrifty Automotive Group Canada Inc., Donlen Corporation, Donlen FSHCO Company, Hertz Canada Limited, Donlen Mobility Solutions, Inc., DTG Canada Corp., DTG Operations, Inc., Hertz Car Sales LLC, DTG Supply, LLC, Hertz Global Services Corporation, Hertz Local Edition Corp.,

Hertz Local Edition Transporting, Inc., Donlen Fleet Leasing Ltd., Hertz System, Inc., Smartz Vehicle Rental Corporation, Thrifty Car Sales, Inc., Hertz Technologies, Inc., TRAC Asia Pacific, Inc., Hertz Transporting, Inc., Rental Car Group Company, LLC, & Rental Car Intermediate Holdings, LLC. (colectivamente, los “Deudores reorganizados”); 5) cualquier entidad en la que los Deudores reorganizados tengan una participación mayoritaria; (6) cualquiera de las subsidiarias, matrices, afiliados, funcionarios, directores, empleados, representantes legales, herederos, sucesores o cesionarios de los Deudores reorganizados; (7) abogado de las partes; y (8) cualquier persona que opte oportunamente por no participar en la Demanda colectiva.

¿De qué se trata el caso?

En mayo de 2013, Enrico Moretti presentó una demanda contra Hotwire, Inc., The Hertz Corporation y Dollar Thrifty Automotive Group, Inc. alegando que participaron en publicidad falsa y otras prácticas desleales con respecto a los automóviles de alquiler de Hertz, Dollar y Thrifty que se reservaron en línea en los Estados Unidos y se recogieron en México. Más específicamente, el demandante alega que Hotwire y Hertz DTAG anunciaron una tarifa diaria baja para automóviles de alquiler en México, pero luego cobraron a los consumidores un precio más alto en el mostrador del alquiler como resultado de (1) cobertura de seguro obligatoria y no divulgada previamente, y (2) conversión de la tarifa de alquiler reservada en los Estados Unidos a pesos mexicanos a un tipo de cambio inflado. El demandante busca representar en una demanda colectiva a arrendatarios en situación similar. Hertz DTAG niega que exista una base real o legal para la demanda y rechaza su responsabilidad.

En mayo de 2020, mientras la demanda estaba pendiente, Hertz DTAG presentó una petición de desagravio en Delaware según el Capítulo 11 del Código de Bancarrota. Según el actual Capítulo 11 Plan de Reorganización (el "Plan") conjunto, que entró en vigencia el 30 de junio de 2021, los acreedores sin garantía recibirán el pago completo por el monto de sus reclamos permitidos.

El tribunal no ha determinado finalmente si debe permitirse el reclamo de la demanda colectiva en la bancarrota; o los montos adecuados de ese reclamo.

¿Qué pretende recuperar el demandante?

El demandante alega que Hertz DTAG anunció un precio bajo para alquileres de automóviles en México, pero cobró a los consumidores un precio más alto en el mostrador de alquiler como resultado de (1) cobertura de seguro obligatorio no revelada anteriormente, y (2) conversión de la tarifa de alquiler reservada en los Estados Unidos a pesos mexicanos a un tipo de cambio inflado. El demandante sostiene que, basándose en su análisis de los registros de transacciones de alquiler de Hertz DTAG, el efecto de estas acciones fue que cada arrendatario pagó 26 USD adicionales, en promedio, por cada día de su período de alquiler basado en la combinación de estos dos factores. Hertz DTAG disputa las acusaciones del demandante y rechaza cualquier culpa, irregularidad o responsabilidad.

¿Por qué se está llegando a un acuerdo en este caso?

El tribunal no ha fallado a favor de ninguna de las partes en la demanda. Ni el demandante ni Hertz DTAG han ganado ni perdido. En cambio, los abogados de la demanda colectiva han investigado los hechos y la ley aplicable con respecto a los reclamos del demandante y la demanda colectiva y las defensas de Hertz DTAG en el transcurso de más de 8 años de litigio y han determinado que el acuerdo propuesto es en el mejor interés de la demanda colectiva. El abogado del demandante ha revisado cientos de miles de páginas de documentos y ha tomado y defendido numerosas declaraciones. Las partes también han participado en varias mediaciones, tanto antes como después de la bancarrota. Después de considerar los riesgos y costos de un litigio adicional, cada una de las partes ha llegado a la conclusión de que es deseable que los reclamos del demandante se resuelvan y desestimen en los términos del acuerdo de la demanda colectiva.

Sin un acuerdo, la Demanda colectiva tendría que convencer primero al Tribunal de Bancarrotas de que permita que este reclamo proceda como una demanda colectiva. Hertz DTAG ha objetado preliminarmente por motivos de procedimiento, alegando que los abogados de la Demanda colectiva carecían de autoridad para presentar los reclamos para cada consumidor individual, que deberían haber presentado un comprobante oportuno de reclamo individual en el Tribunal de Bancarrotas. La Demanda colectiva necesitaría entonces convencer al tribunal a fin de que certifique la Demanda colectiva y apruebe su reclamo. La Demanda colectiva afirma que el reclamo total de la Demanda colectiva, si se comprueba, sería de aproximadamente 100 millones de USD. Sin embargo, el tribunal podría rechazar la solicitud de una Demanda colectiva o permitir la demanda en nombre de una demanda colectiva más limitada. Incluso si se permitiera que la Demanda colectiva procediera, el tribunal podría concluir que el proceso de reserva de Hertz DTAG no era engañoso, o que los cargos de seguro obligatorios y las tasas de conversión de la moneda no habrían sido importantes para las opciones de alquiler de la mayoría de los consumidores. E incluso si determinara que la demanda colectiva había demostrado una mala conducta, el tribunal podría encontrar que el monto del presunto pago adicional era mucho menor a 26 USD por día.

Después de tomar en cuenta los riesgos y costos de un litigio adicional, el demandante y su abogado creen que los términos y condiciones del acuerdo son justos, razonables, adecuados y equitativos, y que el acuerdo obra en favor de los intereses de los miembros de la demanda colectiva.

¿Cuál es el acuerdo?

Antes de este acuerdo, Hertz DTAG había propuesto un plan para regir cómo se distribuirían los activos restantes de las propiedades en bancarrota entre los acreedores con reclamos válidos. Según el plan, Hertz DTAG debe pagar en su totalidad todos los reclamos “permitidos” para los acreedores no garantizados como la Demanda colectiva propuesta. Sin embargo, el dinero se distribuirá a los acreedores solo después de que el tribunal decida si se debe permitir el reclamo de cada acreedor y, de ser así, en qué monto. Para obtener una copia del plan, visite <https://restructuring.primeclerk.com/hertz>.

En el acuerdo, las partes acordaron valorar la Demanda colectiva en 20 millones de USD. Este dinero se utilizará para pagar: (1) los costos de administración del acuerdo, incluido el aviso de la Demanda colectiva, (2) los honorarios de abogados y asesores, los costos y los incentivos adjudicados por el tribunal, y (3) los reclamos válidos de los miembros de la Demanda colectiva según este acuerdo. Si queda dinero de la distribución de la bancarrota para la Demanda colectiva después del pago de estos montos, la parte de cada reclamo válida se incrementará proporcionalmente. Si no hay suficiente dinero para pagar todos los reclamos válidos, cada uno se reducirá proporcionalmente.

¿Qué puedo obtener con el acuerdo?

Si presenta oportunamente un reclamo válido que cumple con las instrucciones en el formulario de reclamo y en este aviso, recibirá un pago en efectivo. Puede presentar un reclamo por cada automóvil de alquiler con Hertz, Dollar o Thrifty que haya recogido en México durante el período de la Demanda colectiva, después de haber reservado ese automóvil en los Estados Unidos a través de un sistema de reserva en línea. El monto del pago a cada reclamante dependerá de (1) la cantidad de días que se alquiló el automóvil, (2) cuántos otros reclamos válidos se presentan; y (3) cuánto queda del acuerdo de los 20 millones de USD después de que se hagan los pagos para administrar el acuerdo (incluida la entrega de este aviso) y al demandante y sus abogados y asesores (según lo aprobado por el tribunal). Se espera que cada reclamante válido reciba 26 USD por día por cada alquiler de un automóvil en México durante el período de la demanda colectiva. Si recibió una notificación individualizada de este acuerdo, establece la cantidad de días de alquiler de un automóvil en México para los que califica, según se establece en los registros obtenidos en el litigio de Hertz DTAG y sus licenciarios mexicanos. El monto real pagado en cada reclamo podría ser inferior a 26 USD por día de alquiler si hay una gran cantidad de reclamos. También podría ser superior a 26 USD por día de alquiler si hay una pequeña cantidad de reclamos.

Los pagos en efectivo se distribuirán solo si el tribunal da la aprobación final al acuerdo propuesto y solo después de que se resuelvan las apelaciones, y solo después de que se realicen las distribuciones en el caso de bancarrota. Si el tribunal no aprueba el acuerdo, si el acuerdo se anula en una apelación o si se da por terminado el acuerdo, no se distribuirán pagos en efectivo.

¿Cómo realizo un reclamo?

Para realizar un reclamo, debe completar el formulario de reclamo disponible en el sitio web del acuerdo, www.mexicocarrentalsettlement.com. También puede solicitar que se le envíe por correo un formulario de reclamo llamando al administrador de reclamos al 1-855-545-0882 o escribiendo a Hertz DTAG Settlement Administrator, 1650 Arch St, Ste 2210, Philadelphia, PA 19103. Si recibió un aviso individualizado del acuerdo e ingresó su número de identificación de reclamante, debe verificar su nombre y el número de días de alquiler de su automóvil en México que se completará previamente en el formulario de reclamo, así como verificar o actualizar su dirección. Si no recibió un número de identificación de reclamante preasignado, o cree que la información que se completó previamente no refleja todos los alquileres de automóviles en México que calificaron durante el Período de la demanda colectiva, debe proporcionar (1) su nombre completo y dirección en el momento de su(s) alquiler(es); (2) el(los) mes(es) y año(s) de su(s) alquiler(es), (3) la marca de cada alquiler; (4) el número de días de alquiler para cada alquiler. Todos los reclamantes también deben verificar que terminaron pagando una tarifa diaria superior a la que se les cotizó cuando hicieron su reserva original. Todos los reclamos deben presentarse bajo pena de perjurio.

Puede enviar el formulario de reclamo en línea, o puede imprimirlo y enviarlo por correo al administrador de reclamos a: Hertz DTAG Settlement Administrator, 1650 Arch St, Ste 2210, Philadelphia, PA 19103. Si se envía en línea, los formularios de reclamo deben enviarse a más tardar el 23 de noviembre de 2021. Si se envían por correo, deben ser recibidos por el administrador de reclamos (no solo con sello postal), a más tardar el 23 de noviembre de 2021.

¿Qué obtienen el demandante y sus abogados?

Hasta la fecha, los abogados del demandante no han sido compensados por su trabajo en este caso. Como parte del acuerdo, los abogados de la demanda colectiva solicitaron al tribunal que les adjudicaran hasta el 40 % de los reclamos de la demanda colectiva (o un total de 8 millones de USD) para pagar los honorarios de los abogados, incluidos los honorarios de los abogados de sus abogados locales en los tribunales de Delaware. Los abogados de la demanda colectiva también solicitaron al tribunal que les adjudique los gastos de su bolsillo, que se estiman en aproximadamente 140 000,00 USD. Además, los abogados de la Demanda colectiva solicitaron al tribunal que aprobara el pago del 3 % de los reclamos de la demanda colectiva (600 000,00 USD) a sus asesores financieros de bancarrota.

El demandante Moretti aún no ha recibido compensación por su tiempo y esfuerzo en el caso y los riesgos que asumió al presentarlo. El demandante Moretti supervisó el litigio durante más de ocho años. Ha pasado más de 100 horas trabajando en este caso, por el que no se le ha pagado, y por el que se le adeudarían 100 000 USD a su tarifa normal por hora que gana como experto en economía. Como parte del acuerdo, el demandante solicitará al tribunal un incentivo de 75 000 USD para compensarlo por su tiempo y esfuerzo.

El demandante y sus abogados presentarán una moción ante el tribunal a más tardar el 2 de noviembre de 2021 en apoyo de sus solicitudes de honorarios de abogados, honorarios de asesor financiero de bancarrota, costos, y gastos y pagos al demandante. Una copia de esa moción estará disponible en el sitio web del acuerdo. El tribunal determinará qué montos de honorarios, costos, gastos y pagos de los representantes de la demanda colectiva adjudicará.

¿Qué reclamos son liberados por el acuerdo?

El acuerdo libera todos los reclamos de los miembros de la demanda colectiva contra Hertz DTAG, sus afiliados y Hotwire, que se relacionan con la reservación y el alquiler de automóviles con Hertz, Dollar o Thrifty en México. Esta liberación incluye reclamos que aún no se conocen o sospechan. Esto significa que, a cambio de ser elegible para los beneficios en efectivo como miembro de la Demanda colectiva, no podrá demandar, continuar demandando ni ser parte de ninguna otra demanda contra las partes liberadas que involucre los reclamos resueltos. Para obtener más información, consulte la Sección 14 del Acuerdo de la demanda colectiva y la liberación.

Aparte del acuerdo, los reclamos contra Hertz DTAG y ciertas entidades afiliadas se liberarán automáticamente por aplicación de la ley de bancarrota. Esto ocurrirá tanto si el acuerdo es aprobado o no.

¿Cómo me excluyo del acuerdo y el litigio?

Puede excluirse de la demanda colectiva si desea conservar el derecho a demandar por separado por los reclamos liberados por el acuerdo. Si se excluye, no podrá presentar un reclamo ni objetar el acuerdo.

Para excluirse, debe completar y enviar el formulario en línea que se encuentra en el sitio web del acuerdo o enviar por correo una solicitud para excluirse del acuerdo al administrador de reclamos en Hertz DTAG Settlement Administrator, Attn: Exclusion, P.O. Box 58220, Philadelphia, PA 19102. Si se envía por correo, la solicitud de exclusión debe incluir su nombre, dirección, las palabras “I wish to be excluded from the Hertz DTAG Mexican Rental Car Class Action Settlement” (deseo ser excluido del acuerdo de demanda colectiva de automóviles de alquiler en México con Hertz DTAG) y su firma.

Si se envían en línea, las solicitudes de exclusión deben enviarse el 23 de noviembre de 2021. Si se envían por correo, las solicitudes de exclusión deben ser recibidas por el administrador de reclamos (sin sello postal) antes del 23 de noviembre de 2021.

Excluirse del acuerdo no le permitirá retener reclamos que se liberen automáticamente por aplicación de la ley de bancarrota, como los reclamos contra Hertz DTAG.

A menos que se excluya del acuerdo, se considerará que ha dado su consentimiento a la jurisdicción y autoridad del tribunal para emitir una orden final sobre el acuerdo, y también se considerará que ha dado su consentimiento a las liberaciones en virtud del plan.

¿Cómo puedo objetar el acuerdo?

Puede pedirle al tribunal que rechace la aprobación del acuerdo o que rechace o reduzca la adjudicación de los honorarios de abogados, honorarios de asesores, costos o incentivos para el demandante y sus abogados. Para hacerlo, debe presentar su objeción oportuna al tribunal usando el sistema de archivo ECF, o debe enviar una objeción a tiempo al administrador de reclamos, quien luego la remitirá al tribunal. En su objeción, no puede pedirle al tribunal que ordene un acuerdo mayor; el tribunal solo puede aprobar o rechazar el acuerdo o decidir el monto de la adjudicación de los honorarios de abogados, honorarios de asesores, costos e incentivos. Si el tribunal rechaza la aprobación de todo el acuerdo, no se enviarán pagos en efectivo y el procedimiento de bancarrota continuará como si no se hubiera llegado a un acuerdo.

También puede comparecer en la audiencia de imparcialidad de aprobación final, ya sea en persona o a través de su propio abogado. Si se presenta a través de su propio abogado, usted es responsable de pagarle a ese abogado. Si desea presentar una objeción al acuerdo en la audiencia de imparcialidad de aprobación final, primero debe presentar esa objeción por escrito de acuerdo con las instrucciones incluidas en este aviso.

Cualquier objeción debe incluir: (1) el nombre y número del caso en In re The Hertz Corporation, et al., Caso No. 20-11218 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del.); (2) su nombre, dirección y número de teléfono; (3) documentos, o testimonio bajo pena de perjurio, suficientes para establecer que usted es miembro de la demanda colectiva; (4) una declaración de su(s) objeción(es) y la base de su(s) objeción(es); (5) una declaración sobre si solicita la oportunidad de comparecer y ser escuchado en la audiencia de imparcialidad de aprobación final; (6) el(los) nombre(s) y la(s) dirección(es) de todos los abogados (si los hay) quién(es) lo representan a usted al presentar la objeción; (b) comparecerá en su nombre en la audiencia de imparcialidad de aprobación final; y/o (c) puede tener derecho a una compensación en relación con su objeción; (7) el(los) nombre(s) y la(s) dirección(es) de todas las personas (si las hay) que serán llamadas a testificar en apoyo de su objeción; (8) copias de todos los papeles, informes u otros documentos en los que se base su objeción, si aún no se encuentran en el expediente del tribunal; (9) una lista de cualquier otra objeción que usted o su abogado hayan presentado a cualquier demanda colectiva en cualquier tribunal estatal o federal de los Estados Unidos en los cinco años anteriores (o declarando afirmativamente que no se ha hecho dicha objeción previa); y (10) su firma como objetor, además de la firma de su abogado, si un abogado lo representa con la objeción. El no incluir cualquier elemento de esta información y documentación puede ser motivo para anular y rechazar o el sobreseimiento de su objeción.

Toda la información enumerada anteriormente debe ser archivada electrónicamente a través del sistema ECF del tribunal, o entregada al administrador de reclamos por correo, correo expreso o entrega personal de manera que la objeción sea recibida por el administrador de reclamos (no solo con sello postal o enviada) antes del 23 de noviembre de 2021. Al enviar una objeción, usted da su consentimiento a la jurisdicción del tribunal, incluida cualquier orden del tribunal a fin de presentar documentos o proporcionar testimonio antes de la audiencia de imparcialidad de aprobación final.

Si objeta el acuerdo, pero aún desea presentar un reclamo en caso de que el tribunal apruebe el acuerdo, aún debe enviar un reclamo oportuno de acuerdo con las instrucciones descritas anteriormente.

¿Cuándo decidirá el tribunal si se aprueba el acuerdo?

El tribunal celebrará una audiencia el 14 de diciembre de 2021 a las 10:30 a. m. (hora del este) para considerar si aprueba el acuerdo. La audiencia se llevará a cabo en la sala del tribunal de la honorable Mary Walrath, Tribunal de Bancarrota de los Estados Unidos para el Distrito de Delaware, 824 N. Market St, Wilmington, DE 19801. También se puede acceder a la audiencia en línea a través de Zoom. La audiencia está abierta al público. Esta fecha de audiencia puede cambiar sin previo aviso.
