Re: Tardibuono-Quigley v. HSBC Mortgage Corp. (USA), et al., Case No. 15 Civ. 6940 (KMK)(JCM)

Dear Judge Karas:

We are Class Counsel in the above-entitled class action. Pursuant to the Court's January 9, 2020 Order preliminarily approving a class settlement, a final approval hearing is currently scheduled for May 20, 2020 at 10:30 a.m. ECF No. 161 ¶ 7. Given the notice to the Class and the substantial monetary benefit that Class Members are due to receive, the parties believe it is important for this date to hold. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic and the Court's Emergency Individual Rules and Practices, the parties anticipate that this hearing will be held telephonically. The parties have conferred and agree that, if the hearing is held telephonically, it would be appropriate to add a notice to class members of this fact on the class settlement website. The notice would include conference call information, should a class member wish to telephonically observe the conference. The deadline to object to the settlement has passed, as well as the deadline to state an intention to appear at the final approval hearing to be heard. The parties and the claims administrator received no objections and no intentions to appear, so this should hopefully be a non-issue. We, therefore, respectfully seek leave to add such a notice to the class settlement website. In accordance with the Court's Emergency Individual Rules and Practices, we further respectfully request that the Court advise whether it would prefer that the parties set up a conference line or use the Court's dedicated conference line.

Respectfully submitted,

s/ Bradley F. Silverman
