ORDER AND FINAL JUDGMENT

This matter is before the Court upon Plaintiffs' Motion For Final Approval Of Settlement With Arteva Specialties S.àr.l., licensed to do business in North Carolina as Arteva Specialties, LLC, d/b/a KoSa, and now named INVISTA S.àr.l., Arteva Services S.àr.l., licensed to do business in North Carolina as Arteva Services LLC, and Koch Industries, Inc. (collectively "KoSa") (the "Motion").

Plaintiffs<sup>1</sup> and KoSa entered into the Settlement Agreement (the "Settlement") to fully and finally resolve Plaintiffs' claims against KoSa. On April 15, 2008, the Court entered its Order Granting Preliminary Approval of Proposed Settlement with KoSa ("Preliminary Approval Order"). Among other things, the Preliminary Approval Order authorized Plaintiffs to disseminate notice of the proposed settlement, fairness hearing, and related matters to the Class.

Notice was provided to the Class and the Court held the fairness hearing on June 24, 2008.

Having considered the Motion, including the proposed plan of allocation and Class Counsel's requests for payment of attorneys' fees and expenses including a request for awards for Plaintiffs, oral argument presented at the fairness hearing, and the complete records and files in this matter, the Court is of the opinion that relief sought in the Motion should be granted.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

1. The Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this litigation.
2. Terms defined in the Settlement Agreement shall have the same meaning when used in this Order and Final Judgment.
3. The Preliminary Approval Order outlined the form and manner by which Plaintiffs were to provide the Class with notice of the Settlement, the fairness hearing, and related matters. The notice program included individual notice to members of the Class who could be identified through reasonable effort, as well as the publication of a summary notice in The Wall Street Journal. Proof that the mailing and publication conformed with the Preliminary Approval Order has been filed with the Court. This notice program fully complied with Rule 23, Fed.R.Civ.P., and the requirement of due process. It provided due and adequate notice to the Class.
4. The Settlement with KoSa was attained following extensive litigation and shortly before trial was scheduled to begin. It resulted from vigorous arm's-length negotiations which were undertaken in good faith by counsel with significant experience litigating antitrust class actions.

5. Final approval of the Settlement with KoSa is granted pursuant to Rule 23(e), Fed.R.Civ.P., because it is “fair, reasonable and adequate” to the Class. In reaching this conclusion, the Court considered: the complexity, expense, and likely duration of the litigation, the recovery obtained and the Class’ reaction to the settlement.

6. The Plan of Allocation set forth in the Class Notice is “fair, reasonable and adequate” to the Class and, therefore, is granted final approval.

7. The entities identified on Exhibit 1, attached, previously have timely and validly requested exclusion from the Class and, therefore, are excluded from the settlement (the “Opt-Outs”). Such entities are not included in or bound by this Order and Final Judgment. Such entities are not entitled to any recovery from the settlement proceeds obtained through this settlement.

8. The Action is hereby dismissed with prejudice and without assessment of costs to any party. The Releasors are barred from instituting or prosecuting, in any capacity, an action or proceeding that asserts a Released Claim against any Releasee.

9. The escrow account established by the parties, and into which KoSa has already deposited the $33,000,000 Settlement Fund, is approved as a Qualified Settlement Fund pursuant to Internal Revenue Code Section 468B and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder.

10. The Court hereby awards Class Counsel 33% of the Settlement Fund in reasonable attorneys’ fees and $1,843,444.56 for costs, plus interest earned thereon, out of the Settlement Fund. Co-Lead Counsel are authorized to allocate to other counsel the fees awarded herein, taking into account their relative contributions to the Action.

11. The Court hereby awards $10,000 to each Plaintiff as an award to be paid from the Settlement Fund.

12. The Court hereby authorizes Class Counsel, without further order of the Court, to disburse the balance of the settlement funds to valid claimants who make claims in accordance with the Plan of Allocation.

13. Neither the Settlement Agreement, nor any act performed or document executed pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, may be deemed or used as an admission of wrongdoing in any civil, criminal, or administrative proceeding.

14. Without affecting the finality of this Order and Final Judgment, the Court retains exclusive jurisdiction over: (a) the enforcement of this Order and Final Judgment; (b) the enforcement of the Settlement Agreement; and (c) the distribution of the settlement proceeds.

15. The Court hereby enters final judgment of dismissal as to Arteva Specialties S.à.r.l., licensed to do business in North Carolina as Arteva Specialties, LLC, d/b/a KoSa, and now named INVISTA S.à.r.l., Arteva Services S.à.r.l., licensed to do business in North Carolina as Arteva Services LLC, and Koch Industries, Inc. The claims of Plaintiffs and the Class in this Action are dismissed with prejudice and each party is to bear its own costs.

This the 24th day of June, 2008.
