IT CONTAINS IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR RIGHTS AS A CLASS MEMBER.

The Santa Clara County Superior Court authorized this Notice.

1. Why should I read this Notice?

This case, entitled Attila Csupo et al. v. Google LLC, Case No. 19–CV–352557 (the “Lawsuit”), was certified to proceed as a class action in Santa Clara County Superior Court, on behalf of a class of California users of Android devices (the “Class”). Trial in this matter began on June 2, 2025, at the Santa Clara County Superior Court, located at 191 North First Street, San Jose, CA 95113. On July 1, 2025, the jury reached a verdict in favor of the Class, awarding them $314,626,932 in damages. On July 23, 2025, the Court entered a monetary judgment in favor of the class and against Google of $314,626,932. The judgment was effective as of July 11, 2025. This notice explains the jury verdict, the Court’s judgment, and the next steps in the Lawsuit.

2. Who is a Class Member in this Lawsuit?

The Class is defined as “all natural persons who, while residing in the State of California, have used a mobile phone running a Google-licensed version of the Android operating system with a cellular data plan from August 9, 2016, to the present.” The time period from August 9, 2016, to the present is known as the “Class Period”. If you previously received an email notice about this Lawsuit in or around March of 2025, that means you have been identified as a potential member of the class.

Excluded from the Class are any officers, directors, management, employees, subsidiaries, and affiliates of Google, and any judge or justice involved in this Lawsuit and the members of their immediate families and judicial staff, as well as any individuals who submitted a valid exclusion request before the May 15, 2025, deadline.

If you previously received an email notice about this Lawsuit and registered to receive updates via the dedicated website but did not receive an email in or around March of 2025, please contact the Notice Administrator by email at info@CellularDataClassAction.com.

3. As a Class Member, how will my Claims be affected?

If you are a member of the Class and did not exclude yourself from this Lawsuit by the May 15, 2025 Exclusion Deadline, then you are still a member of the Class, and the jury’s verdict and all of the Court’s orders in this case apply to you.

4. Who represents me in this Lawsuit?

The Court has appointed Plaintiffs Attila Csupo, Andrew Burke, and Kerry Hecht as the Class Representatives.

The Court has approved the law firms of Korein Tillery LLC and Bartlit Beck LLP to represent the Class, whose lead attorneys are identified below. They are called “Class Counsel.” You will not be charged personally for Class Counsel’s services. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense.

5. What happens next in the Lawsuit?

Google disagrees with the jury's verdict and has filed motions challenging it. Google has also indicated that it intends to appeal the jury's verdict to the California Court of Appeal and the California Supreme Court. The damages awarded at trial cannot be distributed to the Class until after Google's challenges to the jury's verdict, including its planned appeal, are finished. That process can take a long time, and if Google wins those challenges, that may reduce or eliminate any award of damages to the class.

Class Counsel will defend the jury's verdict against Google's challenges. Class Counsel is also seeking prejudgment interest on the verdict in the amount of $104,497,756. And Class Counsel is seeking post-judgment interest until Google pays the verdict. If the Court grants Class Counsel's request for prejudgment and post-judgment interest, that would increase the amount of recovery available to be distributed to the Class.

6. Do I need to do anything to get paid?

No, you do not need to do anything in order to be paid. After Google's appeals are finished, the Court will decide how any money will be distributed, and another Notice will be sent informing you if any action is required in order to be paid.

7. How Will Class Counsel Be Paid?

Class Counsel has asked the Court to approve an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. Specifically, Class Counsel seeks an award of attorney's fees representing 33% of the verdict, plus interest, plus approximately $7 million in actual costs that Class Counsel spent in in order to litigate this case over more than six years. The Court will decide the amount of attorney's fees and costs that will be awarded to Class Counsel. No money will be paid to Class Counsel until after Google's appeal is finished and money is available to be distributed to the Class. Class Counsel's request for fees and costs is available for review at www.cellulardataclassaction.com.

The Court will hold a hearing to decide Class Counsel's request for attorney's fees and costs. That hearing is currently scheduled to take place on November 4, 2025, at 10:00 A.M. before Hon. Charles F. Adams, Department 7, Superior Court, Santa Clara County. You or your own lawyer are welcome to attend the hearing at your expense, but you are not required to do so. You do not need to attend the hearing in order to be paid in this case. If the date or time of the hearing changes, that information will be made available on the public docket, as well as at www.cellulardataclassaction.com.

Class members may submit written objections to the requested award of fees and costs through their personal attorney hired by them at their own expense. Class members may also submit written objections to the Notice Administrator via email at info@CellularDataClassAction.com. Written objections must be received by the Notice Administrator by email on or before October 20, 2025.
