CIRCUIT IN AND FOR MIAMI-DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA

CASE NO: 2026-012979-CA-01

SECTION: CA04

JUDGE: Mavel Ruiz

Vickie Carter

Plaintiff(s) vs.

Teleflora LLC

Defendant(s)

AGREED ORDER ON CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

Plaintiff in this class action, without opposition from Defendant, seek from the Court an Order preliminarily approving class action settlement, conditionally certifying a class for settlement purposes, appointing Plaintiff as the class representative, appointing Avi R. Kaufman of Kaufman P.A. as Class Counsel, directing the issuance of class notice, and scheduling a fairness hearing. Having read the papers in support of the request for an Order conditionally certifying a class for settlement purposes, reviewed the procedural history and the record, the Court makes the following findings and issues the following relief:

BACKGROUND

Plaintiff filed this action on June 26, 2026, and it is currently pending before this Court alleging that Teleflora sent unsolicited text messages to consumers whose numbers are registered on the National do Not Call list in violation of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (“TCPA”), 47 U.S.C. § 227, et seq.

Defendant denies each and every one of Representative Plaintiff’s allegations of unlawful conduct, damages, or other injuries and maintains that it complied with the TCPA and all applicable laws.

Based upon the investigation, and evaluation of the facts and law relating to the matters alleged in the pleadings, motions practice to date, plus the risks and uncertainties of continued litigation and all factors bearing on the merits of settlement, Representative Plaintiff and Class Counsel have agreed to settle the claims asserted in the Litigation pursuant to the provisions of this Settlement, resolving the action.

The Settlement Agreement makes $6,000,000 available for the benefit of Class Members. Each Class Member who makes an Approved Claim shall be entitled to a Claim Settlement Payment in an amount not to exceed Two Hundred Fifty One Dollars ($251) less each Class Member's share of any Settlement Administration Expenses and Fee Award.

In the Settlement Agreement, the parties agree to a settlement of the Litigation that would involve the certification, for settlement purposes only, of a class of persons, subject to the approval and determination of the Court as to the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of the settlement, which, if approved, will result in final certification of the Settlement Class and dismissal of the Litigation with prejudice.

FINDINGS

Upon reviewing the Settlement Agreement^{[\[1\]](#)} and the Complaint in this matter, and the matter having come before the Court, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

Jurisdiction. This Court has personal jurisdiction over the parties and has subject matter jurisdiction over this action, including jurisdiction to preliminarily approve the proposed settlement and conditionally certify a class for settlement purposes.

Class Representatives and Class Counsel. Plaintiff is designated as representative of the Settlement Class, as defined below, for settlement purposes only. Avi R. Kaufman of Kaufman

P.A. is hereby designated as Class Counsel for the Settlement Class, for settlement purposes only.

Class Findings. Strictly and only for purposes of the settlement of this action, the Court preliminarily finds that the requirements of Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.220 have been met as follows:

- A. . The Settlement Class (as defined below) consists of approximately twenty four thousand (24,000) individual settlement class members. The Settlement Class is ascertainable on the basis of the call records and other objective criteria, and members of the Settlement Class are so numerous that separate joinder of each member is impracticable. See Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.220(a)(1).
- B. . The “commonality” requirement is satisfied when the claim or defense of the representative party raises questions of fact or law common to the questions of fact or law raised by the claim or defense of each member of the class. See Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.220(a)(2). In the instant case, Plaintiff has alleged questions of fact and law common to the Class, including:
- Whether Defendant sent text messages for the purpose of marketing its products;
 - Whether Defendant is entitled to rely on consent from the prior subscribers of Class members’ telephone numbers to send the text messages; and
 - Whether Defendant has violated the TCPA.
- C. . “Typicality” requires that the claim or defense of the representative party be typical of the claim or defense of each member of the class. See Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.220(a)(3). In the instant case, this is satisfied by the very nature of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act violation alleged. Considering the allegations of the Complaint, the Court preliminarily finds that, for purposes of this settlement only, these common questions of fact and law predominate over questions of fact and law affecting only individual members of the Settlement Class.
- D. . “Adequacy” requires that the representative party show he or she can fairly and adequately protect and represent the interests of each member of the class. See Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.220

(a)(4). Considering the allegations set forth in Plaintiff's Complaint and for purposes of this settlement only, the Court preliminarily finds that the claims of the representative Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Settlement Class, and that the representative Plaintiff fairly and adequately protects the interests of the Settlement Class, in that: (1) the interests of the named Plaintiff and the nature of her alleged claims are consistent with those of all members of the Settlement Class; (2) there appear to be no conflicts between or among the named Plaintiff and members of the Settlement Class; (3) the named Plaintiff has been and appears to be capable of continuing to be an active participant in both the prosecution of and the negotiations to settle this action; and (4) the named Plaintiff and members of the Settlement Class are represented by qualified, reputable counsel who is experienced in preparing and prosecuting large, complex class actions.

E. . The Court preliminarily finds that, for purposes of this settlement only, a resolution of the action in the manner proposed by the Settlement Agreement is superior to other available methods for a fair and efficient adjudication of this action. The proposed resolution of this action involves both monetary and equitable relief for members of the Settlement Class.

F. . The Court notes that because this action is being settled, rather than litigated, the Court need not consider the manageability issues that might otherwise be presented by litigation of a nationwide class action involving these issues. Amchem Prods. v. Windsor, 521 U.S. 591 (1997).

In making these preliminary findings, the Court has considered, among other factors: (1) the interests of members of the Settlement Class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions; (2) the impracticability or inefficiency of prosecuting or defending separate actions; (3) the extent and nature of any litigation concerning these claims already commenced; and (4) the desirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in a particular forum.

Preliminary Class Certification for Settlement Purposes. Based on the foregoing findings, and for settlement purposes only, the Court defines the Settlement Class to consist of:

All persons throughout the United States (1) who did not provide their telephone number to Teleflora LLC, (2) to whom Teleflora LLC delivered, or caused to be delivered, more than one text message within a 12-month period, promoting Teleflora LLC goods or services, (3) where the person's residential or cellular telephone number had been registered with the National Do Not Call Registry for at least thirty days before Teleflora LLC delivered, or caused to be delivered, at least two text messages within the 12-month period.

The Court finds that, for the sole purpose of settlement, and without an adjudication of the merits, the Settlement Class is sufficiently well-defined and cohesive, and the proposed settlement, on the record thus far produced, seems adequate, to warrant sending notice of the action and the proposed settlement to the Settlement Class.

Findings Regarding Proposed Settlement. The Court finds that: (a) the proposed settlement resulted from extensive arms-length negotiations and was concluded only after counsel for Plaintiff had engaged in extensive due diligence; and (b) the proposed settlement evidenced by the Settlement Agreement is sufficient to warrant (i) preliminary certification of the Settlement Class for settlement purposes, (ii) notice thereof to the members of the Settlement Class, and (iii) a full hearing on the fairness of the settlement.

Fairness Hearing. A hearing (the "Fairness Hearing") will be held remotely on November 25, 2026 at 9:00 a.m. (not less than 90 days from entry of this Order) before Circuit Court Judge Mavel Ruiz to determine: (a) whether the action should be finally certified as a class action for settlement purposes; (b) whether the settlement of the class action should be approved as fair, reasonable and adequate; (c) whether the class action should be dismissed with prejudice pursuant to the terms of the parties' settlement; (d) whether members of the Settlement Class should be bound by the Release set forth in the parties' Settlement Agreement; (e) whether members of the Settlement Class should be subject to a permanent injunction that, inter alia, bars members of the Settlement Class from filing, commencing, prosecuting, intervening in, participating in (as Settlement Class Members or otherwise), or receiving any benefits from, any lawsuit, administrative or regulatory proceeding or order in any jurisdiction based on, or relating to, the claims (and the facts and circumstances related thereto) in this action and/or the released conduct as set forth in the parties' Settlement Agreement; and (f) whether the application of Plaintiff's counsel for an award of attorney's fees and expenses should be approved. The parties' submissions in support of the settlement, and a motion seeking attorneys' fees and expenses shall be filed with the Court at least thirty five (35) days prior to the Opt-Out Deadline.

Notice. Within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order, the Settlement Administrator will create and maintain the Class Settlement Website. The Settlement Administrator's responsibilities will also include securing an appropriate URL to be agreed upon by the Parties. The Class Settlement Website will contain information about the Settlement and case-related documents such as the Settlement Agreement, the Notice, the Claim Form, and the Preliminary Approval Order.

Also within thirty (30) days after the date of this Order, the Settlement Administrator shall send direct notice substantially in the form of the Summary Notice in Exhibit C to the Agreement, via U.S. Postal Service, to Class Members on the Direct Mail List.

Findings Concerning Notice. Having considered, among other factors, (a) the cost of giving notice by various methods, (b) the resources of the parties, (c) the stake of each member of the Settlement Class, and (d) the likelihood that members of the Settlement Class might desire to exclude themselves from the Settlement Class or appear individually, the Court finds that notice given in the form and manner provided in the Settlement Agreement and above is the best practicable notice and is reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise members of the Settlement Class: (1) of the pendency of this action; (2) of their right to exclude themselves from the proposed settlement; (3) that any judgment, whether favorable or not, will include all members of the Settlement Class who do not request exclusion; and (4) that any members of the Settlement Class who do not request exclusion may object to the settlement and, if it, he, or she desires, enter an appearance either personally or through counsel.

Retention of Settlement Administrator. The Court authorizes the retention of Angeion Group, LLC to help implement the terms of the proposed settlement and authorizes such administrator to carry out the notice plan and such other responsibilities as are provided for in the Settlement Agreement.

Exclusion from Class. Class Members may elect not to be part of the Class and not to be bound by this Settlement Agreement. Any Class Member who does not wish to participate in this Settlement must write to the Settlement Administrator stating an intention to be “excluded” from this Settlement. This written request for exclusion must be sent via first class United States mail to the Settlement Administrator at the address set forth in the Notice and postmarked no later than the Opt-Out Deadline. A request for exclusion must be signed by the Class Member, and must include the Class Member’s name, address, and the telephone number that allegedly received a call made by or on behalf of Defendant during the Settlement Class Period, and must clearly state that the Person wishes to be excluded from the Litigation and the Agreement. A request for exclusion that does not include all of this information, or that is sent to an address other than that designated in the Notice, or that is not postmarked within the time specified, shall be invalid, and the Person serving such a request shall be a member of the Class and shall be bound as a Class Member by the Court’s Orders in this Litigation and by this Agreement, if approved. Requests for group, mass and/or class opt-outs or exclusions will be invalid and shall not be allowed.

A. . Class Members shall have the right to appear and show cause, if they have any reason why the terms of this Agreement should not be given final approval, subject to each of the sub-provisions contained below. Any objection to this Settlement Agreement, including any of its terms or provisions, must be in writing, filed with the Court or mailed to the Clerk's Office for Miami-Dade County, Florida, 601 NW 1st Court, 16th Floor Miami, Florida 33136, by no later than the Opt-Out Deadline. Class Members may object either on their own or through an attorney hired at their own expense.

Any objection regarding or related to the Agreement shall contain a caption or title that identifies it as "Objection to Class Settlement in Carter v. Teleflora LLC" and also shall contain the following information: (i) the objector's name, address, email address, and telephone number; (ii) the name, address, email address, and telephone number of any attorney for the objector with respect to the objection; (iii) the factual basis and legal grounds for the objection, including any documents sufficient to establish the basis for his or her standing as a Class Member, including the phone number(s) at which he or she received texts covered by this Settlement; and (iv) identification of the case name, case number, and court for any prior class action lawsuit in which the objector and the objector's attorney (if applicable) has objected to a proposed class action settlement. If an objecting party chooses to appear at the hearing, no later than the Opt-Out Deadline, a notice of intention to appear, either in person or through an attorney, must be filed with the Court and list the name, address, and telephone number of the person and attorney, if any, who will appear.

A Class Member who appears at the Final Approval Hearing, either personally or through counsel, may be permitted to argue only those matters that were set forth in the timely and validly submitted written objection filed by such Class Member. No Class Member shall be permitted to raise matters at the Final Approval Hearing that the Class Member could have raised in his/her written objection, but failed to do so, and all objections to the Settlement Agreement that are not set forth in a timely and validly submitted written objection will be deemed waived. If a Class Member wishes to present witnesses or evidence at the Final Approval Hearing in support of a timely and validly submitted objection, all witnesses must be identified in the objection, and true and correct copies of all supporting evidence must be appended to, or filed and served with, the objection. Failure to identify witnesses or provide copies of supporting evidence in this manner waives any right to introduce such testimony or evidence at the Final Approval Hearing. Representative Plaintiff or Defendant or both may take discovery regarding any objector, their attorney (if applicable), and the basis of any objection, subject to Court approval.

Any Class Member who fails to comply with the applicable provisions of the preceding paragraphs concerning their objection shall waive and forfeit any and all rights he or she may have to object, appear, present witness testimony, and/or submit evidence, shall be barred from appearing, speaking, or introducing any testimony or evidence at the Final Approval Hearing, shall be precluded from seeking review of this Agreement by appeal or other means, and shall be bound by all the terms of this Agreement and by all proceedings, orders and judgments in the Litigation. By filing an objection, objectors and their counsel submit to the jurisdiction of the Court for all purposes, including but not limited to subpoenas and discovery.

Class Counsel and the Parties shall have the right, but not the obligation, to respond to any objection no later than seven (7) days prior to the Final Approval Hearing. The Party so responding shall file a copy of the response with the Court, and shall serve a copy, by hand, overnight delivery, or email to the objector (or counsel for the objector).

Submission of Claim for Benefits. Class Members must timely submit, by mail or online, a valid Claim Form by the Claims Deadline, 60 days after the Notice Date. All Claim Forms must be postmarked or submitted to the Settlement Administrator, either in hard copy form or electronically via the Settlement Website, by the Claims Deadline and contain a valid Claim ID. Regardless of the manner in which it is submitted, a valid Claim Form means a Claim Form containing all required information, including a valid, unique claim identification number to be assigned by the Settlement Administrator, which is signed by a Class Member and is timely submitted. Any Claim Form which is not timely submitted shall be denied. In the event a Class Member submits a Claim Form by the Claims Deadline but the Claim Form is not complete, then the Settlement Administrator shall give such Class Member a reasonable opportunity to provide any requested missing information. For any Class Member who submits a Claim Form determined by the Settlement Administrator to be incomplete, the Settlement Administrator may mail a notice directly to such Class Member, notifying him or her of the missing information and providing him or her with an opportunity to cure (the “Cure Notice”). Class Members must cure incomplete claims on or before the Effective Date.

Service of Papers. Class Counsel and counsel for Defendant shall serve on each other and on all other parties who have filed notices of appearance, at or before the Fairness Hearing, any further documents in support of the proposed settlement, including responses to any papers filed by members of the Settlement Class. Class Counsel and counsel for Defendant shall promptly furnish to each other any and all objections or written requests for exclusion that may come into their possession, and Class Counsel or the Settlement Administrator shall file such objections and a list reflecting such requests for exclusion with the Court on or before the date of the Fairness Hearing.

Termination of Settlement. If the Settlement is terminated or fails to become effective for any reason, the Settling Parties will be restored to their respective positions in the Litigation. In such event, the terms and provisions of the Agreement will have no further force and effect with respect to the Settling Parties and will not be used in this Litigation or in any other proceeding for any purpose, and any Judgment or order entered by the Court in accordance with the terms of the Agreement will be treated as vacated.

Continuance of Hearing. This Court may order the Final Approval Hearing to be postponed, adjourned, continued, or set for remote appearances. If that occurs, the updated hearing date or location shall be posted on the Class Settlement Website, but other than the website posting, the Parties will not be required to provide any additional notice to Class Members.

Stay of Litigation Proceedings. All discovery and other pretrial deadlines are stayed and suspended until further order of the Court.

[\[1\]](#) Unless otherwise noted, all capitalized terms used here have the same definition as that provided in the Settlement Agreement.
